

A Nepali non-government organization that works for the justice and end of impunity; for the end of deprivation through developmental activities together with government; and run campaigns against all forms of discrimination and slavery like practices. The organization is non-political, non-partisan, secular and mandated to work all over Nepal.

"Swatantrata Abhiyan Nepal" is founded in December 10, 2012 (Human Rights Day)as non-government organization to initiate freedom movement that emancipate Nepalese society from fear, deprivation, discrimination and slavery practices.

Swatantrata Abhiyan Nepal has aspired itself For a Larger Freedom that denotes the Nepalese community enjoys the freedom of justice that ends fear, freedom of opportunities that ends deprivation and freedom of equality and dignity that ends discrimination and slavery practices.

It envisages Nepali society with justice, equity and accessible opportunities for all, enabling every individual to live in dignity and in freedom of fear.

To attain the aforementioned vision, and celebrate the organizational theme, Swatantrata Abhiyan Nepal works for efficient and effective delivery of state commitment through partnership and pressure with state mechanism; empowering people to access and claim opportunities and enabling social behaviours and practices of cohesion, peace and mutual respect.

Swatantrata Abhiyan Nepal aims to contribute for the peace, justice and progress through reduction of deprivation, discrimination and vulnerabilities of the people in general and marginalized, excluded and living under the poverty specifically.

Thematic Area

Swatantrata Abhiyan Nepal has four broader thematic areas to contribute for the peace, justice and progress in society. They are:

Freedom from Fear:

Fear of violence, abuse, exploitation and impunity are major concern for Swatantrata Abhiyan Nepal. It believes "justice ends fear". It interferes for justice, protection and reconciliation system that respect dignity and fundamental rights of the vulnerable, victim and survivors.

Freedom from Deprivation:

The deprivation it has mainly concerned are: deprivation from education, deprivation from healthy life including sexual and reproductive health, deprivation from livelihood opportunities and deprivation from basic needs due to natural or human caused emergencies.

Freedom from Discrimination:

The end of discrimination among the people based on cast, gender and social economic status and authority for practising suppression and servitude against anybody is another main area that Swantrata Abhiyan interferes.

Freedom from Slavery:

Swatantrata Abhiyan Nepal is concerned and acting to change unfair and slavery like practices on employment, informal sector employment and malpractices, mainly to address the reality that human slavery in modern form exist in the faces of migrant labor, trafficked persons and in country and local informal sector.

Strategic Approaches

Swatantrata Abhiyan believes in the freedom of opportunities, therefore it's strategic approaches are based on enhancing opportunities that enables a person to safeguard ones' life in dignity and respect others' too. The Key Strategies are: Opportunities of Information; Opportunities of Participation and Enjoyment; Local and Global Solidarity; Partnership and Pressure; and Research and Innovation.
